OVERVIEW

CONTRACTS

There are mainly two solutions proposed and they differ in terms of responsibility for the fee and price:

- Rent of a room;
- Rent of an entire apartment.

Contracts can generally last:

- Annual (with or without renewal option for another year);
- 4+4 (four years, with the possibility of renewal for another four);
- 3+2 (three years, with the possibility of renewal for another 2).

Furthermore, the contracts can be placed under the flat rate tax regime, which is usually advantageous for the owner and which provides that the rent remains unchanged upon renewal.

HOW TO FIND A HOUSE

There are several possibilities for finding accommodation:

- Are you searching alone? There are numerous websites, Facebook and WhatsApp groups on which you can find rooms and apartments for rent, as well as real estate agencies;
- Are you looking as a group? It is advisable to consult property listing websites or agencies, which will handle the search taking into account the guidelines provided;
- Do you want to rely on an agency? Agency fees must be considered, which usually amount to between 12% and 20% of the annual rent. In Viale Bligny and in the university area there are several agencies;
- Are you searching on Facebook groups? Quickly contact whoever posted the ad privately to confirm, checking that it is not a scam. Telephone contact is advisable;
- Have you reached an agreement with the owners? A written agreement is safer. For example a preliminary contract to secure the property.

PRICES

CITY AND AREA

Milan is among the most expensive cities in Italy in terms of rental prices, which typically range from:

- €400-600 for a shared room;
- €650-850 for a single room in a shared apartment;
- €900-1200 for a studio apartment.

The area adjacent to Bocconi (Bocconi area, Ticinese, Porta Romana, Navigli) and the central areas have higher prices than average.

To stay in a lower price range, it is recommended to consider areas such as Città Studi, Brenta, Corvetto and Navigli Ovest, which are well connected and easily reachable by public transport in around 30 minutes.

EXPENSES

Renting an apartment involves two types of expenses:

- Condominium fees: include the costs of the concierge, the lift, the cleaning of the common areas and, generally, but also the heating and hot water. You have to be careful because they are not always specified in listings;
- Management costs: electricity, domestic gas, waste and internet (if present). If the heating is independent (and not centralized), it can have a significant impact on costs. These expenses may also be included in the rent.

N.B. If heating costs are subject to adjustment, if at the end of the year consumption is higher than estimated, you will have to pay the difference.

Public transport season tickets for young people up to 27 years old:

- Annual: €200
- Monthly: €22

For further details, consult the ATM website

PRECAUTIONS

RED FLAGS

Visit the apartment

If possible, try to visit the apartment before concluding any agreement or contract. This avoids being faced with unpleasant surprises. Pay particular attention to ads on social media that are not handled by an agency.

Certain defects are easily missed from the photographs, so it is always advisable to check in person.

Do not pay before the contract is concluded

Unfortunately, it happens that scammers and dishonest agencies try to make you pay before the conclusion of the contract.

Make sure that there are no hidden costs and additional expenses in the contract.

Always ask for photos and official documentation

If it is not possible to visit the apartment, ask for numerous photos and videos from various angles. It is essential to carefully examine the contract before signing, to avoid scams and unfavorable agreements.

Registration of the contract

Make sure that the agency or homeowner proceeds with the registration of the rental contract and that the process is not delayed.

It is important to make your intentions clear right away to avoid agreements being made with other people in the meantime.

ADVICE

WHEN TO SEARCH?

The offer is greatest in June and July, which are therefore the best months to find accommodation. It is advisable to conclude the search and agreements within the first week of August, since after that it is difficult to find open agencies and available owners in Milan. The ideal would be to spend a few days (both on the weekend and during the working week) in Milan to look for the accommodation that best suits your needs, making several appointments in advance.

THE CONTRACT

It is important to ensure that the contract is well drafted, with all the expenses to be incurred specified within it.

Furthermore, under certain conditions, it is possible for students to request a tax deduction for rent equal to 19% of the rent (up to €2633 per year).

NB: once the contract has been signed, 3-6 months' notice is often required to withdraw.

AGENCY PAYMENT

If you turn to an agency, you must be careful not to pay only to receive information. Payment for mediation is only due if the contract is concluded.

- Be wary of anyone who tells you that before you can visit the apartment you need to pay the security deposit.

AGENCIES

- Galliver Real Estate Services;
- Bocconi Flat;
- Lineacasa Bocconi;
- Crystal Milan;
- Bocconi Rent.

Real estate agencies are formally mediation companies, that is, independent and impartial, whose task is to act as an intermediary between the potential buyer and the homeowner.

NB: The prices of the accommodations shown by real estate agents very often DO NOT include mediation costs, equal to approximately 10-15% of the annual rent.

AGREEMENTS WITH OWNERS

To avoid unpleasant situations arising with the owner, it is preferable to put the agreement in writing and have it reviewed by a lawyer, so that the owner cannot terminate your agreement easily, perhaps to accept more advantageous offers.

On the other hand, you too will have to respect the agreements made and you will not be able to choose not to renew the contract a few days before its end.

The advice to follow is therefore: after having visited the apartment and being sure that you want to move there, reach a general agreement on the rent (even if the room for negotiation is very minimal), formalize the agreement in writing, and sign the preliminary agreement. Thanks to this preliminary contract, the owner will be obliged to conclude the definitive contract with you based on what was decided in the preliminary contract.

SUBLETS

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Students hosted by the Bocconi Residences, who leave for the exchange or internship certified by the International Relations Service or Career Service (also certified Free-movers and self-procured internships approved by the Career Service), can temporarily sublet their accommodation to provide hospitality to foreign exchange students, and regain possession at the end of the exchange or internship program.

Furthermore, you can indicate the name of a Bocconi student, regularly enrolled, interested in temporarily occupying the accommodation for the duration of the international program or internship.

COSTS

If the room is full rate, the incoming student pays the full rate for the accommodation, if the room is at a reduced rate, the incoming student pays the rate relating to the ISU bracket assigned to him for that academic year.

If no ISU bracket has been assigned to him, he will pay the full rate.

TIMINGS

The transfer request can only be submitted in the following periods:

- From 4/6/2025 to 8/6/2025 for students who will undertake the international experience in the first semester and from 30/10/2025 to 5/11/2025 for those who will leave in the second semester;
- For each request for temporary accommodation transfer, a management fee of 100,00 euros will be applied to each of the two students involved.
